Expiation Notice Number: _____

The Expiation of Offences Act, 1996 includes provisions for Expiation Notices to be withdrawn, if the matter is considered trifling, as defined in Section 4(2) of the Act.

To assist in determining if this expiation notice, would be considered trifling in accordance with the Act, please tick YES or NO to the following questions.

1. Were you directed to park or stop in an illegal manner by an Officer of the South Australian Police? Please provide documented evidence as well as your own written statement with this form. Y  N
2. Was the vehicle parked or stopped in an illegal manner as a result of a medical emergency? Please provide documented evidence as well as your own written statement with this form. Y  N
3. Was the vehicle parked or stopped in an illegal manner as a result of unexpected mechanical failure which prevented the vehicle to be moved? Please provide documented evidence as well as your own written statement with this form. Y  N
4. Does the Expiation Notice contain incorrect information, such as incorrect date, time or location of offence? Please provide documented evidence as well as your own written statement with this form. Y  N
5. Were the signs or road markings indicating the parking restrictions not in accordance with the requirements of the relevant Australian Standards? Please provide a diagram on the reverse of this page, as well as your own written statement with this form. Y  N
6. Do you have a current Permit to park in a restricted zone – was the Permit displayed and fully visible on the passenger side of the dashboard? Y  N
7. Were there compelling humanitarian or safety reasons or other emergency situation that resulted in the alleged offence occurring. Please provide documented evidence as well as your own written statement with this form. Y  N

If you answered No to the questions listed above, it is unlikely that the Expiation Notice will be withdrawn upon appeal.

If you believe that other circumstances should be taken into consideration by the Council, please attach your written statement to this form.

It is important to note, that offences against the Australian Road Rules Regulations and the Private Parking Act and Regulations, regarding parking and stopping are not recorded against a drivers traffic record and do not attract demerit points.

If you cannot pay the fee by the due date, you may be eligible to enter into a payment arrangement, by contacting the Fines Enforcement & Recovery Unit on 1800 659 538 (fee may apply).
